PAHAL – WHEN STUDENTS SERVE SOCIETY

DATE – 24 JANUARY

On 24 January, the students of Jinvani Management College, Ara, under the NSS (National Service Scheme) initiative “PAHAL”, organized a clothes distribution drive for needy individuals in the community.

Students from MBA, BBA, and BCA actively participated in the social service activity and distributed clothes to people who were in need of warm and decent clothing. The initiative reflected the values of compassion, social responsibility, and community service among the students.

Through this noble effort, the volunteers aimed to support underprivileged individuals and bring comfort and happiness to their lives. The event was a meaningful step towards creating awareness about helping those in need and encouraging students to contribute positively to society.

Small efforts can create a big impact. The PAHAL initiative successfully spread kindness, empathy, and the spirit of service, making a difference in the lives of many people.

The students enthusiastically arranged the donated clothes in the bus before the distribution drive
